1121-2 172Ark405, 288SW929. [a] (1) 172Ark405, 288SW929. (3) It is only where prior lessee negligently injures grantee in operation of lease that he is liable. 172Ark405, 288SW929.

1121-4 TexCommnA 276SW669. [b] Evidence held sufficient to support findings that right to royalties passed to grantee. TexCivA 284SW246. [c] Grantor's claim that right to royalties did not pass because such right is personalty held untenable where deed expressly conveyed this right. TexCivA 284SW246.

1121-10 [d] Interest.-227Ky801, 14SW (2d)155.

1122-13 33F(2d)248 (duty of assignee to make inquiry). [b] 33F(2d)248 (evidence sufficient to support finding that assignee had notice).

1122-17 172Ark405, 288SW929. [b] Liability for injuries to subsequent purchaser exists only where prior lessee is negligent in operation of lease. 172Ark 405, 288SW929. [c] Possession as notice.-179Ark138, 15SW(2d)979.

1122-22 168Ark213, 269SW585.

1122-22½-New. The grantee of an easement to use a landowner's premises for the purpose of capturing waste oil flowing thereon will, in the absence of a conflicting easement, have title to all waste oil abandoned by the original owner and thereafter captured by such grantee on the demised premises. TexCivA 276SW 342.

1122-22½-New. Second lessor may be estopped by untimely assertion of rights. 220Ky271, 295SW172.

1122-22¼-New. A pipe line company purchasing oil from a lessee is charged with notice of the lessor's reserved title to a stated percentage of oil, notwithstanding a division order confined to only part of the land leased. 172Ark 804, 290SW929.

1122-22½-New. Such order does not estop the lessor from asserting title to royalty oil converted by such company. 172Ark804, 290SW929.

1122-22½-New. Waste crude oil not voluntarily released and oil escaping from a pipe line may be recovered by the lessee producing it where he can identify it. 170Ark729, 281SW360.

1122-22½-New. A corporation purchasing raw gas from lessee did not assume lessee's obligations to lessor. TexCommnA 288SW431.

1122-22½-New. In the absence of an agreement, the purchaser of gas from a lessee authorized to sell by the royalty owner may not be sued. TexCivA 8SW (2d)206.

1122-22½-New. Lessee assigning percentage of oil and gas produced is not necessary party plaintiff in assignee's action for price of oil previously sold by lessee. CalA 288P721.

1123-35½-New. Grantees of right to operate for oil and gas have no cause of action against holder of option to purchase for resort to seismographs in exploration. TexCivA 29SW(2d)809.

1124-41 [b] Oil lessee, whose well failed for oil but produced gas, cannot hold prior gas lessee liable for cost of well either on implied contract or estoppel. TexCommnA 16SW(2d)527.

1124-42 [f] Injunction to restrain further work not appropriation of work already done.-TexCommnA 16SW(2d)527.

1124-45 159La403, 105S411 (second lessee may assert forfeiture of prior lease).

1124-47 159La403, 105S411.

1124-48½-New. Second lessee, however, may not sue to avoid a prior lease without making the owner a party to the suit. 159La403, 105S411 (where plaintiff's lease is of undivided fourth in whole tract covered by defendant's lease).

1124-48½-New. Owners of an oil lease, acquired after a valid gas lease to another lessee, have no right, after the well has failed for oil, to use it for extracting gas belonging to the gas lessee. TexCommnA 16SW(2d)527.

1124-48¼-New. Appointment of a receiver on petition of the holder of an oil lease in suit of the gas lessee against a subsequent oil lessee, seeking injunction and appointment of a receiver, will not support an equitable claim by an oil lessee to compensation for a well which failed for oil but produced gas. Tex CommnA 16SW(2d)527.

1124-48½-New. Oil lessees on abandoning drilling for failure of the well for oil, although it produced gas, may remove casing and equipment but are required to plug the well to avoid waste of a gas lessee's gas and to avoid the danger of an open hole. TexCommnA 16SW(2d)527.

1125-55 TexCivA 276SW342.

1125-57½-New. A lessee of premises to mine and operate for oil which has located its pits in pursuance of his rights under the terms of his lease so that abandoned product from other proprietors came naturally to rest therein becomes the first taker and obtains title to such oil. TexCivA 276SW342.

1125-57½-New. A lease of premises for mining oil with a provision imposing on the lessee the duty of preventing the waste of oil from his lease is inconsistent with a grant from the owner of the surface of the exclusive right to go on the premises and impound waste oil from other premises and the lease must prevail over such grant. TexCivA 276SW 342.

1125-57¼-New. A lessee for the purpose of mining for oil has the right to operate a pick-up station at the most advantageous place and to retake his own escaped oil and to retain other fugitive oil captured against all but the true owner, notwithstanding a subsequent surface lease giving another the right to operate a pick-up station. 170 Ark729, 281SW360.

1125-57½-New. A lessee for the purpose of mining for oil, who fails to exercise his right to operate a pick-up station, is entitled to recover only his own escaped oil from a subsequent surface lessee operating a pick-up station. 170 Ark729, 281SW360.

1125-57½-New. As between a lessee for the purpose of mining for oil and a subsequent lessee of surface rights, the question of priority of right to use a particular site for a pick-up station is determined by whether or not it is essential to the first lessee in preserving his own oil. 170Ark729, 281SW360.

1125–57½–New. A lease for the purpose of mining for oil and a subsequent lease of the surface for the purpose of operating a pick-up station are not in conflict. 170Ark729, 281SW360.

1125–57⅛–New. As to fugitive gas. Owners of an oil lease accidentally bringing in a gas well and using gas belonging to a prior gas lessee with knowledge thereof may not offset against the value of the gas used the expense of producing the same. Tex CivA 38SW(2d)592.

1125–64½–New. Evidence held insufficient to support judgment against defendant for difference between value of ore as shown by returns and reports of defendant. 36F(2d)553.

[a] (2) Under provision requiring driller to furnish all materials and labor, driller is bound to furnish casing to keep out water. 180Ark729, 22SW(2d)1007. [b] (4) In determining whether defendant impliedly agreed to drill well to depth of three thousand five hundred feet, text, context, and extrinsic circumstances may be considered to ascertain intention of parties. TexCivA 13SW(2d)950. (5) Contract held not to contain implied obligation to drill well to depth of three thousand five hundred feet unless oil or gas was found at a less depth. TexCivA 13SW(2d)950. (6) Contract completed when lime found at less depth than contract specified. 141 Okl 9, 283P556.

1128–95½–New. Whether oil or gas is found in paying quantities is determinable by good faith and honest judgment of operator. TexCivA 283SW608.

1128–95⅛–New. Surety on contractor's bond is not liable for rent to be paid by a contractor for drilling a rig, under provisions for payment of labor and for material used and return of the rig in good condition. TexCivA 291SW587.

1128–95¼–New. Contract for drilling oil and gas well was held not void for want of sufficient description of leases and land conveyed. TexCommnA 2SW (2d)426.

1128–95½–New. Evidence held to sustain recovery under agreement for contribution of dry hole money in drilling well for oil and gas. 143 Okl 112, 287 P1033.

1128–96 44F(2d)192; TexCivA 20SW (2d)108 (not contractor's duty to point out defects in abstracts furnished by owner, in absence of contractual provision therefor); TexCivA 26SW(2d)426 (right to abandon contract). 1197–15 See also 215Ala170, 110S151.

1197–15½–New. Both the lessor and the lessee may, under some circumstances, be liable for subsidence. 218Ala369, 118 S749(2dcase).

1197–18 34 OhA38, 170NE379.

1197–23 34 OhA38, 170NE379; 295Pa 40, 144A740. [a] Verbal understanding is sufficient when established by proper proofs. 295Pa40, 144A740.

1200–58 [a] In Colorado.–86Colo 418, 282P260.

1200–68½–New. Additional bond may be required where bond given becomes insufficient because of changed conditions. 86Colo 418, 282P260.

1200–68½–New. Where sufficient bond is tendered court may, in reasonable exercise of discretion, permit further mining operations. 86Colo 418, 282P 260.

1202–6½–New. Complaint failing to allege breach of some duty in permitting lessee to mine under plaintiff's land has been held demurrable, in a suit against lessor for injuries by cave-in. 215Ala170, 110S151.

1202–6½–New. Count held not subject to defendant's grounds of demurrer. 215Ala170, 110S151.

1203–16 104WVa368, 140SE57, 58 [cit CJ], 56ALR303.

1203–19½–New. A mine owner has the burden to show underground conditions where there is evidence of removal of any subsequent support without other proof. 17F(2d)981.

1203–36 [a] (6) Other evidence held sufficient. 232 IllA169; 217Ky141, 289 SW211.

1204–54 232 IllA169.

1205–61½–New. Careless mining. Petition for damages held sufficient. 217 Ky292, 289SW247.

1205–61½–New. Evidence held sufficient to show that loss occurred during the time defendant's predecessors operated the mine. 217Ky292, 289SW247.

1205–61¼–New. Evidence held sufficient to take to jury the question of the amount lost in specific area. 217Ky 292, 289SW247.

1205–61½–New. Verdict for damages held excessive. 217Ky292, 289SW247.

1205–66 4LaA20. [a] Liability irrespective of negligence.–122 Okl 253, 254P20.

1205–68 [a] Damage to farm caused by release of salt water from abandoned well.–126Kan699, 271P319.

1205–68½–New. The prohibition of the Oklahoma statute against allowing salt water to flow over the surface of land was enacted for the benefit of all persons who may suffer injury by its violation. 124 Okl 71, 254P14 (cattle owners included).

1205–68½–New. Under such statute negligence does not constitute an element of the offense of allowing salt water to flow over the surface of the land. 124 Okl 71, 254P14.

1205–68¼–New. Under such statute it is negligence per se for one engaged in oil mining operations to permit salt water to escape and flow over the surface of land and into a stream used by another for watering stock. 124 Okl 71, 254P14.

1205–70 [a] (2) Driller assumes obligation to use at least ordinary care in selecting amount of nitroglycerin to be used. TexCommnA 298SW554. (3) Owner has no absolute right to decide on amount of formation to be shattered at one charge of explosive. TexCommnA 298SW554. (4) Due care in selecting quantity of nitroglycerin to be used involves good faith observance of all relevant facts including what was known and what was consciously unknown about qualities of explosive and area in which its force was to be exerted. Tex CommnA 298SW554. (5) Supposed custom making size of nitroglycerin shot dependent on thickness of formation which owner desires to exploit is not defense to action for injuries to well on adjoining land. TexCommnA 298SW 554.

1206–80½–New. One drilling an oil well owes a duty to avoid altogether physical invasion of an adjoining tract or area of lateral support. TexCommnA 298SW554.

1206–80½–New. Such driller is bound to avoid disturbance of possession and enjoyment of an adjoining tract except so far as is reasonably essential to proprietorship by prudent choice of implements. TexCommnA 298SW554.

1207–99 [a] (2) Complaint in action by owner of patented land against lessee under oil and gas lease from federal government alleging damage to land from unnecessary construction of reservoir thereon, from which polluted water escaped destroying grass and damaging water supply, states cause of action. 81 Mont527, 264P122. [b] Laches.–214Ky 838, 284SW95. [c] Action by holder of right to explore for oil and gas against legal owners for submerging land is not "fact." TexCommnA 294SW197. [d] Burden of proof.–81Mont527, 264P122.

1207–1½–New. Plaintiff suing for injuries to crops from the overflow of crude oil has the burden of showing by a preponderance of competent testimony, not only that his crops were damaged, but also the extent of such damage. Tex CivA 8SW(2d)694.

1207–5 [a] (2) TexCommnA 298SW554. (5) To warrant finding that water causing damage to plaintiff's wells came from abandoned wells. 214Ky838, 284SW95. (6) To warrant finding of negligence in misreading log of oil well or in ignoring data therein when firing shot of nitroglycerin. TexCommnA 298SW554. (7) To warrant finding that explosion of nitroglycerin opened passageway in direction of plaintiff's well. Tex CommnA 298SW554. (8) To show that nitroglycerin shot proximately caused damage in well on adjoining tract. Tex CommnA 298SW554. (9) To show that quantity of nitroglycerin used in shooting oil well was not ordinary and customary. TexCommnA 298SW554.

1207–5½–New. Evidence of a greater run of oil from plaintiff's well after alleged damage by an explosion of nitroglycerin in defendant's well is not conclusive against plaintiff where a large part of the oil was produced and stored before the explosion. TexCommnA 298 SW554.

1207–9 TexCommnA 298SW554.

1207–10½–New. Use of a large quantity of nitroglycerin in shooting a well is sometimes negligence as matter of law. TexCommnA 298SW554.

1207–14 [a] Destruction of grass is damage to land within allegation of damage by reason of destruction of surface of land. 81Mont527, 264P122.

579–40⅙–New. A junior mortgagee cannot be prejudiced in respect of his security by any agreement of a prior mortgagee with a third party to which he is not a consenting party. 131Misc 446, 226NYS129.

579–40⅙–New. Thus, an agreement between a prior mortgagee and a subsequent lessee, subordinating the lien of a prior mortgage to that of a lease, made without the knowledge or consent of the junior mortgagee, does not affect the priority of the latter's lien to interest of lease, 131Misc446, 226NYS129.

579–40⅐–New. and in foreclosure proceedings of prior mortgage, junior mortgagee may have recourse against leasehold in case of deficiency at a foreclosure sale, 131Misc446, 226NYS129.

579–40⅛–New. since the foreclosure sale, although barring the junior mortgagee from any claim against the owner's reversion, does not destroy his mortgage. 131Misc446, 226NYS129.

579–40⅑–New. Such subordination agreement does not impair the security of the junior mortgagee merely because the lease requires the return of the deposit at the end of the term, where the lease increases the value of the property. 131Misc446, 226NYS129.

579–40⅒–New. Where a second mortgage lien was attached subsequent to the expiration of the ten-year limitation barring the first mortgage, the second mortgage became the first lien entitling the holder to foreclose in preference to the first mortgage. 130 Or396, 280P328.

Montana statute, providing that a mortgage shall be good from the time of record and for eight years after the maturity of the debt secured, and no longer, unless a renewal affidavit is filed within sixty days after the expiration of such period, in which case it shall be good for another eight years, limits the life of a mortgage, unless extended, to eight years after the maturity of the debt. 81Mont120, 262 P164.

584–13⅓–New. Such statute provides a remedy which can be invoked by the mortgagee or his successors only. 81 Mont120, 262P164.

584–13¼–New. The mortgagee or his successors, on complying with the statute, may foreclose at any time within the second eight year period. 81Mont 120, 262P164 (overruling any implication to the contrary in 70Mont146, 225 P123).

584–13½–New. Where a mortgagor and the holder of a mortgage extend the maturity of the debt to a date within the eight year period after maturity and commence action to foreclose within two years of the new maturity date, a defendant who took a subsequent mortgage with knowledge of plaintiff's right is not injured and cannot complain of failure to file a renewal affidavit. 81 Mont120, 262P164.

584–13⅙–New. Under another provision of the Montana statute the parties to a mortgage may renew or extend it by a writing, complying with the formalities required in case of a grant of real property within the eight year period following the maturity of the debt, where the rights of subsequent mortgagees have attached, if such mortgagees are not injured by the renewal or extension. 81Mont120, 262P164.
